

Terms of Engagement

We, WHP Rechtsanwälte GmbH (“we” or “WHP”) are pleased to set out our Terms of Engagement, which will apply to the legal work performed for you. These Terms of Engagement and the letter of engagement which incorporates them (the “Engagement Letter”) form the contract between us for the provision of our services.

1. Introduction

We place great importance on the quality of the legal services we provide to our clients. We appreciate that different clients have different expectations of their lawyers, and we will seek to identify your expectations and deliver a service which fully meets them.

2. Our Role

1. The Services: We will provide the services described in the Engagement Letter (the “Services”). We are both entitled and obliged to represent you to the extent that this is necessary and expedient for the fulfilment of the mandate. As a matter develops it may be that the scope of the required legal work changes. Where this is the case, we will seek to discuss it with you at the earliest opportunity in order to agree any variations to the scope of the Services and the Engagement Letter which may be necessary.
2. Our Standards: All work which we carry out for you will be performed in accordance with our understanding of the proper interpretation of the law and in accordance with current professional guidance and practice. All work is subject to our internal review procedures which bring the wider perspective and the greater experience of partners, senior lawyers and associate lawyers to bear on the key issues and help to ensure compliance with recognized standards of reporting and compliance. We are bound by the ethical guidelines of the attorney-at-law profession with regard to our legal practice and will act in accordance therewith.
3. Contact Partners: We appreciate that, whilst you are instructing us as a firm to act for you, often it is because of your relationship with a particular partner or lawyer within the firm. Accordingly, if you request a particular partner or lawyer to act on a matter, they will do so, if possible. Where no particular partner is requested as your main contact, we will identify a partner within the firm who will be ultimately responsible for all matters on which you instruct us.
4. Response Times: We aim to achieve speedy response times consistent with our duty to you to provide well considered advice and we will at all times endeavor to adhere to any reasonable deadline you set us (although we may be delayed by third parties or other factors outside our control).
5. Language of reports: Our reports shall be issued in English, unless specifically agreed otherwise. We can also provide services in German, Ukrainian and Russian.
6. Information: To maximize our effectiveness, we must work with you as a team. As our client, you are responsible for determining the strategy to be adopted in a particular matter and giving us instructions. Often our work will be dependent on you (or your other advisers) providing information promptly. To avoid unnecessary verification, we will assume all information you provide to us is complete and accurate unless you tell us to the contrary. During the current mandate, you will inform us of any changed or newly arising circumstances that may be of importance in connection with the execution of the mandate immediately after they become known.

7. Real Estate Purchase Agreements: If we set up a contract for the purchase of real estate property, you will provide us with all information necessary for the calculation of the real estate transfer tax, registration fee and real estate income tax. If we perform such calculations on the basis of the information provided by you, we shall be exempt from any liability towards you in any case. You shall indemnify and hold us harmless in the event of any financial detriment, if the information provided to us by you proves to be incorrect.
8. Power of attorney: Upon request, you shall authorize us in writing and sign a corresponding written power of attorney. This power of attorney may be directed to the performance of individual, precisely defined or all possible legal transactions or legal acts.
9. Complaints Procedure: We aim to offer all our clients an efficient and effective service and we are confident that this will be the case. However, if any problems do arise or, indeed, you have any suggestions on how we can improve our services to you, then please do not hesitate to contact your contact partner to discuss them. If your contact partner is unable to resolve the matter then please feel free to contact the partner specified in the Engagement Letter for this purpose.
10. Termination: Both parties reserve the right to terminate the engagement upon reasonable notice (i) if any of our invoices remain unpaid for 60 days or more (termination right of WHP); or (ii) for other good reason. We will be entitled to payment for work undertaken prior to termination.
11. Legality: We will conduct the representation entrusted to us in accordance with the law and represent your rights and interests to everyone with zeal, fidelity and diligence.
12. Discretion: We are generally entitled to perform our services as we see fit and to take all steps, especially to use means of attack and defense in any way, as long as this does not contradict our mandate, our conscience or the law.
13. Instructions: If you give us an instruction, compliance with which is inconsistent with principles of proper professional conduct based on law or other professional ethics code, we will reject the instruction. If, in our opinion, instructions are inappropriate or even disadvantageous for you, we will inform you of the possible disadvantageous consequences before carrying them out.

14. Imminent danger: In the event of imminent danger, we shall be entitled to take or refrain from any action not expressly covered by the instruction issued or contrary to an instruction issued, if it appears to be urgently required in your interest.

3. Fee Arrangements

1. Charges: Unless otherwise agreed in the Engagement Letter, we will in normal circumstances charge you on the basis of the hourly rates set out in the Engagement Letter. If the scope of the work involved in providing the Services warrants it, for example because of its complexity, novelty or value or the need to meet particular time deadlines, we will seek to reach agreement with you on any appropriate additional amount to be charged. In court and arbitration proceedings, we shall be entitled to at least the amount of costs recovered from the opposing party in excess of the agreed fee, insofar as it can be recovered, otherwise the agreed fee. If no other agreement has been made, we are entitled to an appropriate fee. Your claims for reimbursement of costs against the opposing party are hereby assigned to us in the amount of our fee claim, as soon as they arise.
2. Review of Hourly Rates: Our hourly rates are periodically reviewed. The rates quoted in our Engagement Letter are subject to variation to reflect these reviews. We will notify you of revised rates before they come into effect.
3. Fee Estimates: If the Engagement Letter includes an estimate of our fees you should be aware that such estimate has been given in good faith but will not be binding unless it is specifically agreed to be so. An estimate of our fees not expressly designated as binding shall be non-binding and shall also not be regarded as a binding cost estimate (within the meaning of Section 5 (2) of the Austrian Consumer Protection Act (KSchG)), because the extent of the services to be provided by us cannot - by their nature - be reliably assessed in advance. We will notify you if the estimate is reached before the engagement is completed or is likely to be exceeded materially.
4. Disbursements: Our charges exclude out-of-pocket expenses (such as notary's fees, independent consultants' or foreign lawyers' fees, travel and sustenance, translation services, couriers and special mail services, search fees, bank charges in respect of telegraphic transfers, court fees and stamp duty, mobile telephone calls, etc.) and agency costs, which will be recharged at cost. Where these are likely to be a significant part of our bill we will ask you to approve our expenditure in advance. We may also add to our fees amounts, at our standard rates, in respect of document binding, video or telephone conference facilities, research expenses where such amounts are specifically incurred on your behalf. We may charge per sheet for photocopying at our standard rates as determined from time to time, save that when it is necessary for us to use outside suppliers their charges will be included in our bill as a separate expense item. You will not be invoiced for the time and effort required for the invoicing and preparation of the fee notes. This does not apply, however, to the costs incurred for the translation of the specifications of the services provided by us into a language other than German at your request. Unless otherwise agreed, you will be charged for the cost of letters to auditors at your request in which, for example, regarding the status of pending cases, a risk assessment for the formation of accruals and/or the status of outstanding audit fees as of the balance sheet date.

5. Invoicing Guidelines: We will issue invoices at monthly or quarterly intervals, or at the end of the assignment if sooner. VAT will be added to your bill where appropriate.
6. Payment of invoices:
 - (i) unless otherwise agreed, all our fees shall be set under the Engagement Letter (including any success fees, determined at the time of concluding the Engagement Letter), and shall be computed and denominated in EUR. All the other fees shall be computed on the basis of hourly rates applicable in accordance with the Engagement Letter, and shall be denominated in EUR.
 - (ii) any invoice-related issues should be raised within 30 days of the invoice being issued. Uncontested amounts are required to be paid by the due date, unless you are a consumer as defined by the Austrian Consumer Protection Act.
7. Invoicing Details: With each invoice we will provide a short description of the work we are charging for.
8. Payment Terms: Invoices should be settled within 14 (fourteen) days as of the receipt. We reserve the right to charge interest on arrears in the amount of 9.2 percentage points above the respective base interest rate if fee notes are not paid within this period; if you are a consumer, the interest rate shall be 4% (statutory interest rate); You shall also compensate us for any damage actually incurred beyond this. Any further legal claims remain unaffected. We regard our engagement to provide services to you as ongoing, with the work performed relating to each fee note we issue representing a partial supply of the services provided under the engagement. Each partial supply shall be regarded as having been made on the date the related fee note is issued.
9. Taxes: Charges, including expenses, will be stated exclusive of any taxes. You will be responsible for paying any taxes arising from the Engagement, such as Value Added Tax, at the applicable rate.
10. Funds held by us: Money held by us for you, whether on account of fees or disbursements or otherwise, will be placed in our Client Account and will be held by us in compliance with the relevant applicable law.
11. Payment by Third Parties: If you are the client who instructs us, we are obliged to issue our bill in your name, even if the bill is being paid by a third party. As the client, you will be liable for payment of our invoice. Subject to this, and to arrangements agreed with you on timing of payment, we would be happy for our invoice to be paid directly by the third party. In these circumstances you will need to give us authority to deal with the third party directly to facilitate payment. If a mandate is given to us by several clients in the same legal matter, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all claims arising therefrom.

12. Foreign Lawyers: In providing the Services, we may need foreign law advice on certain matters. We understand that you may have specific policies on instructing foreign lawyers and we would therefore expect to consult you prior to instructing foreign counsel, unless we reasonably believe you expect us to proceed to obtain foreign advice in any event. Unless you instruct us otherwise or unless there is a conflict of interest, where appropriate, we would usually expect to use a Geneva Group International (GGI) network member firm, as designated under Clause 7.7, or another law firm correspondent of WHP in the relevant jurisdiction at the normal hourly rates charged by the GGI network member firm or the correspondent law firm of WHP in that jurisdiction.
13. Other Specialist Advice: In providing the Services, we may occasionally, unless you instruct us otherwise or there is a conflict of interest, seek specialist advice from independent consultant on areas outside our expertise. We may seek their advice on matters relating to taxation. The costs of such advice will be passed on to you in accordance with Clause 3.4 of these Terms and Conditions.
14. Translation fees: Our fees are estimated on the assumption that the documents made available to us are in German, English, Ukrainian or in Russian. If any document or electronic message we receive is in a different language, or if it is necessary to commission a third party for the translation for other reasons, e.g. because we have insufficient capacity for translation by our employees, or because a court-sworn translation is required, we will charge you the cost of translation, unless otherwise agreed between us.

4. Confidentiality and conflicts of interest

1. Restriction on Disclosure of Confidential Information: Neither of us will disclose to any third party, without the prior written consent of the other party, any proprietary or confidential information including, but not limited to, the terms and conditions of this Engagement and amounts payable under this Engagement, which is received from the other party for the purposes of providing or receiving Services (“Confidential Information”). Each of us agrees that any Confidential Information received from the other party shall be used only for the purposes of providing or receiving Services under this, or any other, Engagement between us. The Confidential Information may be disclosed to our respective lawyers/employees involved in the Services, but we will each make our respective lawyers/employees, to whom such Confidential Information is disclosed, aware of the restrictions on disclosure contained in this Clause 4. These restrictions will not apply to any information which:

- (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a breach of an obligation under this clause; or
- (ii) is acquired from a third party who owes no obligation of confidence to the recipient in respect of the information; or
- (iii) is or has been independently developed by the recipient.

2. Disclosure Required by Law: Notwithstanding 4.1 above, either of us will be entitled to disclose Confidential Information of the other party to:

- (i) our respective insurers or legal advisors, or
- (ii) a third party to the extent that this is required by a mandatory law, by any court of competent jurisdiction, or by a governmental or regulatory authority, or where there is a mandatory legal right, duty or requirement to disclose such information provided that without breaching any legal or regulatory requirement and where reasonably practical, not less than two business days' notice in writing is first given to the other party.

You are aware that in some cases we are obliged by law to provide information or make reports to the authorities without obtaining your consent; in particular, reference is made to the provisions on money laundering and the financing of terrorism as well as to the provisions of tax law (e.g. Account Register and Account Inspection Act, , GMSG, etc.). You acknowledge that, in view of the particularly high risk of money laundering (§ 165 StGB) or terrorist financing (§ 278d StGB), we are obliged to examine with particular care all transactions in which we carry out financial or real estate transactions in your name and for your account or participate in their planning or execution on your behalf and which concern the following:

- (i) The purchase or sale of real estate or companies.
- (ii) The management of money, securities or other assets, the opening or management of bank, savings or securities accounts; or
- (iii) The establishment, operation, or administration of trusts, companies, foundations, or similar structures, including the raising of funds necessary to establish, operate, or administer companies.

Within the scope of these transactions, we are obligated to comply with the provisions of Sections 8a to 8f of the Austrian Attorney's Bar Code (RAO). More detailed information is available here:

https://www.rechtsanwaelte.at/index.php?id=1353&tx_kesearch_pi1%5Bsword%5D=geldw%C3%A4sche&x=0&y=0

3. Other Disclosure: Notwithstanding the above, we may disclose any information referred to in this Clause 4 to independent consultants we are contracting for the purpose of performing the legal work you have requested.

4. Citation of Services: Without prejudice to Clauses 4.1 and 4.2 above, we may cite the performance of the Services to our clients and prospective clients as an indication of our experience.
5. Conflicts of Interest: Conflicts of Interest and providing services for other clients:
 - (i) We provide a wide range of services for a large number of clients and may be in a position to provide services to companies and organizations, which you might regard as giving rise to a conflict of interest. Whilst we have established procedures to identify such situations, we cannot be certain that we will identify all those that exist or may develop, in part because we cannot always anticipate what a company might perceive to be a conflict. We request that you notify us of any conflicts relating to the Services of which you become aware. Where any such conflicts are identified and we believe that your interests can be properly safeguarded by the implementation of appropriate procedures, we will discuss and agree with you the arrangements, which we will put in place to preserve confidentiality and to ensure that our advice and opinions are wholly objective. Where we cannot establish safeguards to manage conflicts, we would need to discuss with you steps to terminate our services.
 - (ii) We will not be prevented or restricted by virtue of our relationship with you, including anything in the Engagement, from providing services to other clients. Our standard internal procedures are designed to ensure that information communicated to us during the course of the Engagement will remain confidential and that the advice and opinions, which you receive from us, are wholly independent. We have discussed with you such procedures and you agree the adequacy of such procedures for the purpose of the Engagement. Just as we will not use information confidential to you for the advantage of a third party, we will not use confidential information obtained from any other party for your advantage.
6. Data Protection Act: We shall comply with and shall continue to comply with the provisions of the relevant Austrian and European legislation and shall not process any personal or sensitive data in any manner incompatible or inconsistent with the purposes for which it was provided. You agree to ensure that you have obtained all the necessary consents of the individuals whose personal data you provide to us and you agree to indemnify us against each and any loss, liability and cost incurred by us as a result of your acts or omissions in connection with that data which place us in breach of the Act or any equivalent law or regulation in any other jurisdiction. You have taken note of our privacy policy and can view it at any time at the following link: www.winklerlaw.at

7. Fax/E-mail: Like other means of communication, fax and electronic messages (such as e-mail, SMS, chat etc.) communication carries with it the risk of inadvertent misdirection, or non-delivery of confidential material. In particular, it should be recognized that the Internet is not secure and there are risks if commercially sensitive information is sent either to or by electronic message. Where you provide us with fax, e-mail or other electronic messages addresses to which materials are to be sent, we will assume (unless you tell us otherwise) that:

- (i) you consent to the use of such means of communication.
- (ii) your arrangements are sufficiently secure and confidential to protect your interests; and
- (iii) you will carry out effective procedures to protect the integrity of data, in particular screening for viruses.

8. E-Mail Communications

1. General: During the engagement we may wish to communicate electronically with each other. However, the electronic transmission of information cannot be guaranteed to be secure or virus or error-free and consequently, such information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late or incomplete or otherwise be adversely affected or unsafe to use. We each recognize that systems and procedures cannot be a guarantee that transmissions will be unaffected by such hazards.
2. Responsibilities: We confirm that we each accept these risks and authorize electronic communications between us. We each agree to use commercially reasonable procedures to check for the currently most known viruses before sending information electronically. We shall each be responsible for protecting our own systems and interests in relation to electronic communications and neither you nor we (in each case including our respective partners, employees, subcontractors or agents) will have any liability to each other on any basis, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, in respect of any error, damage, loss or omission arising from or in connection with the electronic communication of information between us or our reliance on such information.
3. Procedures: Where messages are sent by electronic messages, we shall adopt the following procedures and require you to do likewise:
 - (i) if a matter is urgent, the sender shall supplement the electronic message with a telephone call to confirm that appropriate action is being taken;

- (ii) unless you instruct us clearly on your electronic message to us that you do not want a response in electronic form, we may respond via electronic message;
- (iii) if sending a confidential electronic message, the sender will indicate clearly if a response is not wanted in electronic form. All risks connected with sending by electronic message commercially sensitive information relating to your business are borne by you and are not our responsibility. If you do not accept this risk, you should notify us in writing that electronic message is not an acceptable means of communication;
- (iv) both parties will carry out procedures to protect integrity of data, in particular, it is the recipient's responsibility to carry out a virus check on any attachments before launching any documents, whether received via electronic message or otherwise.

If you or someone from your sphere sends us an electronic message for our attention, we are not obliged to read this electronic message without an explicit assignment to do so. If we read the electronic message sent to us, we shall be entitled to a fee for this in accordance with an express agreement for comparable services.

9. Staff: For a period of twelve months from the date on which we cease to provide the Services to you, neither of us will solicit directly or indirectly any employees of the other who have been involved in providing or receiving Services or who have otherwise been connected with any contract or engagement between us, except for those employees who have been engaged in a purely administrative or secretarial basis. This will not restrict either of us from employing staff who apply without being unsolicited in response to a general advertising or other general recruitment campaign.

5. Documentation.

1. Ownership of Documentation: We will own the copyright and all other rights in all documentation provided to you (whether on paper or computer disk or by electronic message) except where we specifically agree otherwise. You may make copies of such documentation for your own internal use, but you must not provide the documentation or copies thereof to any third party without first having our written permission.
2. Freedom to use Ideas: We may develop or use for other clients any ideas, concepts, information or know-how reflected in any of the documentation provided to you (in whatever form) or otherwise developed during the course of providing services to you.
3. Use of Documentation: Where we supply documents in draft form (either in hard copy or electronically) please do not use them without first discussing them with us to ensure they fully meet your needs. If any changes or additions are made, please discuss these with us before implementation. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we accept no responsibility for any losses or detriments resulting from the use of documents, otherwise than in the form supplied by us or in any circumstances other than those for which they were prepared.

4. Destruction of Documentation: In principle, we return all documents and certificates to you at the end of our mandate. We will keep our file of papers (except for any of your papers which we have returned to you) for no more than three years and on the understanding that we have your authority to destroy the file seven years after sending you our final invoice. We will not destroy documents you explicitly ask us to deposit in safe custody. We make a charge for retrieving stored papers or deeds in response to continuing or new instructions to act for you, and we will make a charge based on the time we spend on reading papers, writing letters or other work necessary to comply with such instructions.
5. Duty to Co-Operate: We agree to cooperate during a transition to another firm and/or return your materials, files, or other documentation to you.

6. Warranty and Liability

1. Limitation of Warranties and Liability: The liability of WHP, their partners, employees, business associates and subcontractors – whether derived from a title of warranty or damages through contract or tort or for other reasons – for loss, damage, costs and expenses incurred by you or your employees (including other members of your group of companies), except for willful misconduct or gross negligence, shall under no circumstances exceed the lesser of
 - (i) the amount paid to us for our affected services and
 - (ii) the cover provided by our statutory liability insurance for those services (EUR 2,400,000.00). The maximum amount applicable under this point relates to one insured event. If there are two or more competing injured parties (clients), the maximum amount for each individual injured party shall be reduced in proportion to the amount of the claims. We are only liable to you, not to third parties. You shall expressly draw the attention of third parties who come into contact with our services as a result of your actions to this fact.
2. Exclusions: The provisions of Clause 6.1 and this Clause 6.2 set out the absolute limit of our liability under or in connection with the Services and all other liability is expressly excluded. In particular, but without limitation, liability for increased costs or expenses, loss of profits, indirect or consequential loss including, without limitation, economic loss or failure to realize anticipated savings or benefits is excluded. Furthermore, any liability arising from information that represents a defensible legal opinion is excluded.

3. Time Limits: In our experience, the longer the delay between an event which could give grounds for complaint and the date on which the complaint is made, the more difficult it is for matters to be put right to the complaining party's satisfaction. Accordingly, any legal proceedings arising from the provision of the Services may only be brought by either party after notifying the other party of such intention within the period prescribed under the Austrian statutes of limitation.
4. Unless a shorter limitation or preclusion period applies by law, all claims against us shall be forfeited if they are not asserted in court within six months of the time at which you become aware of the damage and the person causing the damage or of the event otherwise giving rise to the claim. Unless you are an entrepreneur as defined by the Austrian Consumer Protection Act, this period shall be one year for you and shall not apply to warranty claims. All claims against us, irrespective of the legal grounds and irrespective of whether you are an entrepreneur within the meaning of the Austrian Consumer Protection Act, shall in any case become statute-barred at the latest after the expiry of five years after the conduct (infringement) giving rise to the claim, unless they have already become statute-barred earlier.
5. No Liability for Client Failings: We shall not be liable for any loss, damage, costs or expenses arising in any way from any fraudulent or negligent acts or omissions, misrepresentations or default on your part or by your directors, employees, agents or sub-contractors and insofar as we incur any costs in consequence of such a cause on your part, we shall have the right to recover such costs from you.
6. No Liability for Third Party Failings: We shall not be liable for any act or omission occurring before the commencement of our engagement, and accordingly, where a matter in progress is transferred to us, our responsibility shall commence on the date you accept the Engagement Letter or (if later) the date we receive the working papers. Unless the Engagement Letter expressly states that we will conduct a full review of work done to date, we shall be entitled to assume that the working papers we receive are complete, accurate and up-to-date and that all matters have been properly and punctually attended to up to the time of transfer. For any advice given by us based on information or advice given to us by foreign lawyers or consultants, liability for any loss, damage, cost or expense arising directly or indirectly out of the act or omission of any third party is excluded.
7. No liability for oral advice: We shall answer enquiries over the telephone or in meetings, on a strictly informal basis. As these may involve an immediate answer to a complicated problem in respect of which we may not have received full and accurate information, we shall not be liable in contract or tort (including negligence) for any advice given by us orally upon which you later rely. In the event that you should wish to rely on advice given to you orally, please ask that the advice be confirmed in writing.
8. Changes: If the legal situation changes after we have provided our services, we shall not be obliged to inform you of such changes or their consequences.

9. Force Majeure: We shall not be liable for any delay or failure to perform our obligations where such delay or failure to perform arises from circumstances outside our reasonable control.

7. General

1. Further Instructions: We will be pleased to undertake any other advisory assignments on legal matters in the future. The terms set out in these Terms of Engagement, together with our current hourly rates at the relevant time, will apply to that advice also, unless we agree variations to those terms with you in writing or we issue an entirely separate letter of engagement.
2. Governing Law: Austrian law with the exemption of its rules on conflicts of laws insofar as they refer to any other law than Austria law and with the exemption of the UN Sales Convention shall govern the provisions of these Terms of Engagement and the contents of any agreement to which they relate.
3. Resolving Disputes: Should any dispute arise between us we will attempt to resolve the dispute in good faith by senior level negotiations. Where both of us agree that it may be beneficial, we will seek to resolve the dispute through mediation. If the dispute is not resolved through negotiation or mediation each of us agrees that the competent Commercial Court in Vienna for the First District, or if the country of your seat is not a party to a treaty on enforcement of judicial awards, the arbitration center of the Austrian Economic Chamber in accordance with its Vienna Rules shall have exclusive jurisdiction in connection with the resolution of the dispute. However, we are entitled to assert claims against you before any other court in Austria or abroad where you have your place of business, residence, branch or assets. If you are a consumer, the place of jurisdiction is governed by Section 14 of the Austrian Consumer Protection Act.
4. Variation: These Terms of Engagement (and/or the contents of any agreement to which they relate) may be varied or superseded at any time by agreement in writing between us. Any such variation shall not affect any rights or obligations of either of us that may already have accrued unless otherwise specifically agreed.
5. Survival: The provisions of Clauses 4, 5, 6 and 7 shall survive and continue notwithstanding any termination or completion of our Engagement.
6. Headings: The headings in these Terms of Engagement are for ease of reference only and do not affect their interpretation.
7. Legal Status of WHP: WHP is an independent firm of attorneys based in Vienna – Austria and regulated by the Vienna Bar. It is an independent member law firm of the GGI network, however, WHP is not in partnership with GGI, other law firms or any third party.
8. Severability: The invalidity of one or more provisions of these terms and conditions or of the contractual relationship governed by the terms and conditions shall not affect the validity of the remaining agreement. The contracting parties undertake to replace the invalid provision(s) with a provision that comes as close as possible to the invalid provision in terms of the economic result.

9. Data Processing: For the performance and processing of our legal services, we collect and store the personal data that you have voluntarily provided to us, such as name, address, email address, telephone number, date of birth, gender, social security number, tax number, bank account number, photos, health data and, if necessary, biometric data. We process your personal data to fulfil our contractual obligations within the scope of the mandate relationship, to fulfil other legal obligations, and/or due to legitimate interests (in particular use for advertising purposes), unless your interests in confidentiality prevail.
